

A night scene of a city celebration. In the upper right, a large, bright yellow and white starburst firework explodes against a dark sky. Below it, a dense display of green and white lights, possibly from a fountain or a large light installation, illuminates the left side. In the foreground, the dark silhouettes of several trees are visible. In the background, a large, ornate light display in the shape of a cross or a similar geometric pattern, made of many small, multi-colored lights, is visible. The overall atmosphere is festive and celebratory.
